Working to achieve sustainable Aboriginal Nations

Native title remains an important foundation for Aboriginal Nations to gain recognition and bring about positive and lasting change.

Who we are and what we do

SANTS is recognised and funded as the Native Title Service Provider for South Australia by the Commonwealth Government under s.203FE(1) of the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth).

SANTS performs all of the functions of a representative body throughout South Australia. Those functions as set out in Section 203B of the Act are:

- Facilitation and assistance;
- Certification;
- Dispute resolution;
- Notification;
- Agreement making;
- Internal review; and
- Other functions.

SANTS provides a range of services to South Australia's Aboriginal Nations who hold or may hold native title. These are delivered by a professional client services team.

SANTS provides legal representation and guidance, anthropological research and community liaison to support native title applications, negotiations and determinations. SANTS also provides services to Aboriginal Nations to enhance their capacity to achieve their aspirations. This includes natural and cultural resource management, community and organisational development, governance and training and economic development services.

SANTS is committed to working with Aboriginal Nations to realise their aspirations which are often broader than the recognition of native title.

SANTS facilitates innovative pathways for our clients to achieve sustainable native title outcomes at the regional level.

SANTS is committed to partnering with organisations that will assist in strengthening native title outcomes.

SANTS is committed to achieving native title rights and interests through negotiation rather than litigation (where possible) and aims to assist in building positive relationships between Aboriginal Nations and the wider South Australian community.

SANTS is a company limited by guarantee and is governed by a Board of Directors. The Board's role is to guide and govern the running of SANTS to its full potential.

The Board and Senior Management work closely to achieve a significant level of confidence and security for our clients and the future of SANTS.
